Attorneys in the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Georgia investigate and prosecute federal crimes and represent the interests of the United States in both criminal and civil cases and matters, as well as on appeal. Criminal attorneys investigate and prosecute federal criminal violations of many types, including: computer crime, fraud, public corruption, drug trafficking, organized crime, civil rights violations, money laundering, and violent crime. Civil attorneys also practice in a wide variety of subject areas.

Projected No. of Volunteers: 10

Internship Location(s): Atlanta, Georgia

Application Material: Cover letter, resume, law school transcript, legal writing sample, dates when available, and day and evening telephone number(s)

Qualifications: First-year (second semester) and second-year law students. Must be a U.S. citizen and will be subject to a background investigation due to the sensitive nature of the office's work.

Application Deadline: January 13th for Summer Program (June - August)

Minimum Weeks Required: 7 - 8 weeks (students who desire to split summers with other activities will also be considered)

Salary: Volunteer (without compensation) or work-study credit. (No matching contributions available; all compensation must be provided by law school.)

Assignments: Interns will be assigned to one of three divisions: criminal, civil defensive, or affirmative litigation. Usual assignments will include legal research, drafting pleadings and responses and appellate briefs. Interns will assist attorneys to prepare for trials and during trials. Interns assigned to the civil defensive and affirmative litigation sections may also assist with depositions.
